

Three New Community Members Elected to Community Outreach Committee

Gail Gramarossa, MPH, CHES

Jasmin Rivas, MFA

Connor Robichaud

The Board of The Health Foundation of Central Massachusetts recently elected the following individuals to serve three-year terms as Community Members on the Foundation's Community Outreach Committee.

Gail Gramarossa, MPH, CHES, Prevention Director, Quaboag Hills Substance Use Alliance

Jasmin Rivas, MFA, Director of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Access, Old Sturbridge Village

Connor Robichaud, Regional Projects Coordinator, Central MA Regional Planning Commission

The Community Outreach Committee is a standing committee of the Board designed to help assess community needs and encourage engagement of and feedback from individuals and communities intended to benefit from the Foundation's activities. The Committee's valuable role represents one of many strategies the Foundation employs to uphold its commitment to health equity. The Foundation was established in 1999 with the proceeds from the sale of Central Massachusetts Health Care, Inc., a physician-initiated, not-for-profit HMO. The Foundation currently has assets of approximately $95 million and has awarded grants totaling over $50 million since it began its grantmaking in 2000. For further information about the Foundation's grant programs, please visit The Health Foundation's website at www.hfcm.org or call (508) 438-0009.
